

Sideletter

The University and the union share 1) an interest in recruiting and retaining qualified librarians and 2) a concern that the current salary scales do not further this interest with respect to mid and early career librarians. The parties agree that the successor negotiations scheduled to begin 2012 shall focus on possible range structure changes that furthers this shared interest.