

Overview of the University of California Retirement System (UCRS) Advisory Board

Board Responsibilities

The UCRS Advisory Board develops ideas or new approaches to the provisions of UCRS benefits and communicates them to the President of the University. The UCRS Advisory Board discusses concerns relating to all Members, Participants and their Beneficiaries. The UCRS plans are:

- University of California Retirement Plan (UCRP)
- Tax-Deferred 403(b) Plan (403(b) Plan)
- Defined Contribution Plan (DC Plan)
- 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan (457(b) Plan)

The retirement plans administered by UCRS hold assets of over $50 billion. The UCRS Board generally meets quarterly in Oakland at the Office of the President. Members serve without compensation but are reimbursed for necessary expenses.

Board Members

The UCRS Advisory Board consists of nine members: an officer of the University appointed by the President of the University; three persons appointed by the President of the University; The Treasurer of The Regents or the Treasurer's designee; two persons selected by the Academic Senate from the ten UC campuses; and two persons from different UC locations elected by those Active Members of the University of California Retirement Plan who are not members of the Academic Senate.

2007 Election

An election will be held May 29 to June 22, 2007, to select two employees who are not members of the Academic Senate to the UCRS Advisory Board. All Active UCRP Members who are not members of the Academic Senate are eligible to vote. The elected UCRS Board members will serve from July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2011.

The following employees are not eligible for initial or continuing membership on the UCRS Advisory Board: employees of the University of California Office of the President who, in their job functions, are directly engaged in making UCRS policy, work in a department where such policy is made, or are engaged in providing legal advice to UCRS; as well as all employees of the Offices of Internal Audit at the campuses, laboratories and the Office of the President. Non-Academic Senate elected UCRS Board members must be from different University locations.

The deadline for submission of nomination materials is May 4, 2007.

Qualifying candidates will be notified by May 10, 2007 and announced to the University community prior to the voting period, which runs from May 29, 2007 to 5:00 p.m. PDT on June 22, 2007.
