

Copyright Education Web Site – Content Review

The eight documents included here comprise the “authoritative interpretation” of copyright law and policies. The content has been separated from the design of the site in order to focus on the editorial material. Existing policies and links to external resources are not included in this review. The UCOP Copyright Working Group is also reviewing these documents.

In detail, the files are:

3 quick guides:

1. Off-Air Recordings of TV Programs at UC
2. Fair Use of Photocopied Material at UC
3. Copyright Ownership

4 sections of the site:

1. Copyright Ownership
2. Public Domain
3. Fair Use
4. Obtaining permissions

1 FAQ for the Teaching, Learning and technology Center (TLtC)

Note that all links are underlined in the text and included as footnotes. All internal links are labeled “Copyright education web site” and have a URL beginning with <http://copyright.lib.uci.edu>