

Kathleen D. Johnson:

Kathleen D. Johnson has served for the last five years as the Management Services Officer for UCSD's Department of Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering. She is a member of the Business Officer Academy Committee and is the instructor for the Staff Education and Development class "Communication Tool Belt". She has served on the Academic Affairs Personnel/Administrative Reclassification Committee, the Committee on Accountability and Controls, the Academic Business Administrators Committee on Committees, and has twice served as an assessor for the UC Management Skills Assessment Program.

Ms. Johnson worked at the University of San Diego for nine years, first as External Funds Accounting Manager and later as the Director of Budget and Administration for the School of Law. She began her career as a financial analyst, working ten years for General Dynamics Space Systems Division in San Diego.

Ms. Johnson has a B.S. Business Administration from UC Berkeley and an MBA from the University of San Diego.

The Academic Affairs Business Officer Academy (BOA)

An innovative staff enrichment program that provides training, guidance and support to staff members who aspire to become business officers. The BOA is a two-year program centered around case study, small group discussions and personal interactions such that the participants gain an understanding and appreciation of the role of the business officer at UCSD.