

Peter J. Taylor

Mr. Taylor is Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the University of California system. He joined the University in April 2009. As CFO, he oversees a myriad of financial matters for the University, including accounting, external finance, banking and cash management, strategic sourcing and risk management.

Prior to joining the UC system, Mr. Taylor was a Managing Director at Barclays Capital, based in the Los Angeles office. He joined Barclays in September 2008, after a long career at Lehman Brothers. Based in the Firm's Fixed Income Division, Mr. Taylor worked with several State and local governments, as well as electric and natural gas utilities, in California, Arizona and Nevada, and structured floating rate, commercial paper, fixed rate, derivative and asset-backed transactions.

Active in the community, Mr. Taylor has served on various boards and commissions. In 2004, he was appointed by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger to the California Performance Review Commission, which was charged with reviewing and recommending ways to reform the framework of State government. He was also appointed by Governor Gray Davis to the California Student Aid Commission, where he served from 2000 until 2002.

From 2002 – 2004, Mr. Taylor served as the Chair of the Board of Directors of the UCLA Foundation, the primary volunteer fundraising organization for the campus. He previously was President of the UCLA Alumni Association (1996-1998), and also served as an alumni representative on the University of California Board of Regents from 1998 until 2000.

Additionally, since December 2005, he has been a member of the J. Paul Getty Trust and since December 2000 he has been a member of the Board of Directors of the James Irvine Foundation, where he serves as Chair.

Prior to his career in investment banking, Mr. Taylor worked as a manager with GTE in the company's Thousand Oaks office, and as Executive Director of the Coro Foundation, a nonprofit organization in Los Angeles. Before receiving his graduate degree, he worked for six years on the staff of the California State Assembly.

Mr. Taylor received his undergraduate degree from UCLA. He completed a one-year graduate level fellowship with the Coro Foundation, training out of the Foundation's Los Angeles Center. He obtained his Master's Degree in Public Policy Analysis from Claremont Graduate University.

Office Address:

1111 Franklin Street, 10th Floor
Oakland, CA 94607