

Kathy Mendonca

is a Training Program Specialist for the Center for Organizational and Workforce Effectiveness (COrWE) at UC Berkeley. Her responsibilities include program design, implementation, and support of various professional development opportunities for campus staff. Prior to joining UCB, Kathy was a Principal Learning Consultant for Systemwide Training and Organizational Effectiveness at UCOP. In this role, she conducted assessments of organizational needs, developed, and delivered local and systemwide training courses and provided consulting services. Kathy is a graduate of UC Riverside with a BA in both Psychology and Sociology and a certification in Training and Human Resource Development from UC Berkeley Extension. Kathy was Chair of CUCSA in 2007-08.