

Dr. Sidalia (Sid) G. Reel, Director – Staff Diversity Initiatives,
Office of Equity & Inclusion

As Director of Staff Diversity Initiatives, Sidalia is responsible for engaging staff and management to ensure diversity throughout the campus at all levels of employment. This newly created position is charged with developing programs, policies and practices for staff that address campus climate, staff development and community engagement.

Sidalia comes to UC Berkeley from the Hewlett-Packard Company where she led the Diversity and Inclusion organization, and consulted with company leaders worldwide on developing and implementing diversity and inclusion strategies, programs and policies. Prior to joining HP, Sidalia was the Diversity Manager at Pacific Bell.

Her background includes more than 20 years of corporate and consulting positions in human resources, instructional design, teaching and management. She is a member of the Diversity Collegium think tank and several other diversity focused organizations.

She has an Ed.D. in Human Performance from the School of Education at the University of Southern California. She received her masters of education administration from Harvard University and a bachelor's degree in sociology from Scripps College.
