

Experience the Arts with Staff Assembly

In collaboration with the Claire Trevor School of the Arts, Staff Assembly offered 50 complimentary tickets for staff to attend Dance Visions, dedicated to Claire Trevor Professor Donald McKayle, celebrating his 20 years with UCI's Dance Department. He premiered a new work to an original score jointly composed by Kei Akagi and Alan Terricciano and performed by Kei Akagi & The Tokyo Trio and the UCI Symphony Orchestra, conducted at the Irvine Barclay Theatre. Once again, tickets went quickly and the performance received rave reviews.

Staff Night with UCI Men's Basketball & Volleyball

The UCI Staff were offered up to 5 free tickets to attend the UCI Men's Basketball game against Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in February. T-shirts were given to the first 300 participants. The turn-out was the best in the history of the staff nights.

In March, we will offer a similar staff night at the UCI Men's Volleyball Game vs. USC.

Lunchtime Series

The Lunchtime Series offers free lectures, workshops, seminars, and panel discussions on various topics of interest to staff. The staff were invited to A Conversation with Liz Toomy: The Past, Present and Future of the University of California. Ms. Toomy is the daughter of Daniel Aldrich, the first Chancellor of UC Irvine. The event was well attended and very informative.

"Meals with Mike"

UCI Staff Assembly continues to sponsor this program with UCI's Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost who hosts a monthly meeting. This provides him the opportunity to engage in casual conversation with members of the staff over lunch at the University club.
