Financial Statements for the Year Ended

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Regents of the University of California:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of the University of California 1979 Faculty Residential Mortgage Revenue Bond Program as of June 30, 1999, and the related statement of revenues, expenditures and changes in fund balance for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the University of California's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the University of California 1979 Faculty Residential Mortgage Revenue Bond Program as of June 30, 1999, and its revenues, expenditures and changes in fund balance for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Year 2000 required supplementary information is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, and we did not audit and do not express an opinion on such information. Further, we were unable to apply certain procedures prescribed by professional standards for supplementary information because of the unprecedented nature of the year 2000 issue and its effects, and the fact that authoritative measurement criteria regarding the status of remediation efforts have not been established. In addition, we do not provide assurance that the University is or will become year 2000 compliant, that the University's year 2000 remediation efforts will be successful in whole or in part, or that parties with which the University does business are or will become year 2000 compliant.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA 1979 FACULTY RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE REVENUE BOND PROGRAM

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The University of California 1979 Faculty Residential Mortgage Revenue Bond Program (the "Program") began operations in September 1979 with the issuance of the University of California 1979 Faculty Residential Mortgage Revenue Bonds. The Program provided low-interest home mortgage loans to designated employees of the University. The fund balance is accumulated pursuant to provisions of the Indenture relating to the University of California 1979 Faculty Residential Mortgage Revenue Bonds dated September 1, 1979.

As per the Indenture, the bonds are limited obligations of The Regents of the University of California, payable solely from revenues collected from mortgage loans and are secured by a pledge and assignment of these revenues.

Basis of Accounting - The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and the accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenditures during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk - All of the mortgage loans provided by the Program have been made to faculty of the University of California (the "University") for properties located in California.

2. CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash equivalents consist of money market funds and are held by the University's trustee as agent for the University.

3. INVESTMENTS

Investments are stated at fair value, based on quoted market prices, and consist of U.S. Treasury securities. Investments are held by the University's trustee as agent for the University.

4. MORTGAGE NOTES RECEIVABLE

Mortgage notes receivable bear interest at the rate of 7.875% per annum. Principal and interest payments are due monthly over the remaining term of the 30-year notes.

5. REVENUE BONDS PAYABLE

Revenue bonds in the principal amount of $5,885,000 were outstanding at June 30, 1999. These bonds bear interest at rates ranging from 6.8% to 7.2% per annum.

The future maturities of debt obligations for the years ending June 30 are:

2000	$ 210,000
2001	200,000
2002	195,000
2003	215,000
2004	230,000
2005 and thereafter	4,835,000
 Total	 $5,885,000

Due to the significant amount of mortgage refinancing activity resulting from lower market interest rates on home mortgage loans, the Program has used proceeds from retired mortgage loans to prepay principal on outstanding bonds in excess of the debt service requirements under the Indenture.

REQUIRED SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION (UNAUDITED)

Year 2000

The Year 2000 issue is the result of various electronic systems, including computer systems, not properly processing dates in the Year 2000 and beyond. Because the University depends heavily on such electronic and computer systems, the Year 2000 issue has the potential for causing disruption to some University operations.

As of June 30, 1999, the University has completed the awareness and assessment stages for its mission critical systems and has substantially completed the remediation stage. Both completing the remediation and validation/testing are currently underway. The University anticipates, for systems it maintains, completing all stages of remediation for mission critical systems prior to December 31, 1999.

Because of the unprecedented nature of the Year 2000 issue, its effects and the success of the related remediation efforts will not be fully determinable until the Year 2000 and thereafter. Due to the uniqueness of this issue, management cannot provide any assurances that the remediation efforts will correct all potential problems for mission critical systems, or that parties with whom the University does business will be Year 2000 ready.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA 1987 FACULTY MORTGAGE REVENUE BOND PROGRAM

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The University of California 1987 Faculty Mortgage Revenue Bond Program (the "Program") began operations in August 1987 with the issuance of the University of California Faculty Mortgage Revenue Bonds, Series 1987. The Program provided low-interest home mortgage loans to designated employees of the University. The fund balance is accumulated pursuant to provisions of the Indenture relating to the University of California Faculty Mortgage Revenue Bonds, Series 1987 dated August 1, 1987.

As per the Indenture, the bonds are limited obligations of The Regents of the University of California, payable solely from revenues collected from mortgage loans and are secured by a pledge and assignment of these revenues.

2. CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash equivalents consist of money market funds and are held by the University's trustee as agent for the University.

3. INVESTMENTS

Investments are stated at contract value, consist primarily of nonparticipating investment agreements between the trustee and a bank and an investment company which guarantee interest rates ranging from 7.45% to 7.57% per annum, and are held by the University's trustee as agent for the University.

4. MORTGAGE NOTES RECEIVABLE

Mortgage notes receivable bear interest at the rate of 7.95% per annum. Principal and interest payments are due monthly over the remaining term of the notes, each having a final maturity date of August 1, 2017.

5. REVENUE BONDS PAYABLE

Revenue bonds in the principal amount of $2,925,000 were outstanding at June 30, 1999. These bonds bear interest at 7.75% per annum.

The future minimum maturities of debt obligations for the years ending June 30 are:
