

University of California
5 Years of New Appointments of Tenure Track Faculty in Law
1996-97 through 2000-01
and National Availability Data

	Number UC New Appointments			Percentage UC New Appointments			Availability <sup>2</sup>
	Total	Women	Men	Total	Women	Men	Women
TOTAL
Tenured	9	1	8	100.0%	11.1%	88.9%	29.8%
Non-tenured <sup>1</sup>	25	5	20	100.0%	20.0%	80.0%	33.6%
Total	34	6	28	100.0%	17.6%	82.4%
UCB
Tenured	4	0	4	100.0%	0.0%	100.0%
Non-tenured <sup>1</sup>	6	1	5	100.0%	16.7%	83.3%
Total	10	1	9	100.0%	10.0%	90.0%
UCD
Tenured	2	0	2	100.0%	0.0%	100.0%
Non-tenured <sup>1</sup>	5	2	3	100.0%	40.0%	60.0%
Total	7	2	5	100.0%	28.6%	71.4%
UCLA
Tenured	3	1	2	100.0%	33.3%	66.7%
Non-tenured <sup>1</sup>	14	2	12	100.0%	14.3%	85.7%
Total	17	3	14	100.0%	17.6%	82.4%

<sup>1</sup> Acting associate and acting full professors.

<sup>2</sup> Availability figures were derived from data published by the Association of American Law Schools.

Non-tenured: weighted average of 1995-96 through 2000-01 nationwide women new assistant Law professors and registered candidates for new positions.

Tenured: weighted average of 1998-99 nationwide women associate and full Law professors.