CONTRACT AND GRANT OFFICERS

Subject: Californian Cooperative Ecosystems Studies Unit Cooperative Agreement, Amendment 3

The subject Amendment to the Californian Cooperative Ecosystems Studies Unit (CESU) Cooperative Agreement adds the federal Department of Defense, California Polytechnic State University, CSU Chico Research Foundation, and Humboldt State University to this Agreement. Previously, Amendment 1 to this Agreement added the Department of Agriculture National Research Conservation Service under Agreement # 68-3A75-4-103. Amendment 2 added the Department of Interior U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service under Agreement # 81332-5-G004. Amendment 4 added Calif. State University Northridge. These Amendments are distributed to campus CESU liaisons and Research Administration Offices from the Berkeley campus California CESU Administrative Office and are posted on the CESU website at <http://nature.berkeley.edu/cesu/>. Thus, our office has not distributed amendments which only add new partners.

Individual CESU agency members should not require additional terms and conditions to those in this Cooperative Agreement. Modifying these terms or adding terms which require additional negotiations defeats the purpose of establishing this one document to create this Cooperative Ecosystem Studies unit and streamline the administration of these awards. Please note: Any CESU federal member can provide agreements to campuses under this CESU for any other CESU.

Additional information about the CESU nationally can be found on-line at www.cesu.org. The website for this California CESU is <http://nature.berkeley.edu/cesu/>. Questions regarding the California CESU may be directed to the California CESU Administrative Office at UC Berkeley College of Natural Resources, Michi Takata, (510) 643-9579. All other instructions remain the same.
