CHANCELLORS

University of California Policy on Education Loan Practices

Dear Colleagues:

Attached for your information is the University of California Policy on Education Loan Practices. The policy is effective immediately.

The policy derives from the University's goal of minimizing financial barriers to student attendance at the University. Consistent with this goal, the policy reflects the principle that the University's practices related to education loans should be focused on maximizing benefits to borrowers. The new policy establishes a common, systemwide approach for ensuring that University practices focus on helping students and their families identify the loan that best meets their needs, and for ensuring that those practices are transparent and fully disclosed.

Questions concerning the policy should be directed to Vice President for Student Affairs Judy Sakaki.

Sincerely,
