RENTAL CARS FOR YOUR UC BUSINESS TRAVEL – QUICK TIPS!

Compare alternatives before you travel and keep the following tips in mind:

Think about it – how much driving is really required?
- Renting is likely more economical if driving long distance and/or multiple locations.
- Alternatively, consider a shuttle, Uber, Lyft, or taxi to/from the airport, hotel, and/or meeting location.
- Either way, share if you’re traveling as a group – it saves money and it’s much more fun!

So you’ve decided to rent a car!
- Reserve through Connexxus; take advantage of preferred provider discount rates.
- Book up to an Intermediate class vehicle unless a no-cost upgrade is provided.
- Review your coverage before leaving the rental agency; never accept additional insurance!
- Discounted pre-fueling at the agency can save when you’re putting in the mileage but don’t prepay for a full tank if you’re not going to use it.
- After-the-fact refueling at the rental car agency can be more than double the going rate. Leave time to stop by the local gas station to fill-r-up.
- What’s not reimbursable when renting a car? Additional insurance, roadside assistance, satellite radios, Frequent Flyer surcharges, parking/traffic tickets, to name a few...
