

Health Sciences Instruction and Research Building

- Provides space for several recently formed programs in UCI's College of Health Sciences: the Program in Nursing Science; the Program in Public Health; and the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences.
- Addresses problems with current space assignments, which consist of leased space or campus space intended for other academic uses. Current space assignments are insufficient to accommodate existing activities.
- Provides instruction, research, and office space to meet the highest-priority needs of these programs.
- Supports campus goal to provide new facilities in support of instruction and research.
- Will require LEED™ Silver, with a bid alternate for Gold.
