Jamaica
Article 22

1. I was a resident of Jamaica on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I am visiting the United States for the purpose of teaching or conducting research for a period not expected to exceed two years at the University of California, _____, which is a accredited educational institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities.
3. The teaching or research compensation received during the entire taxable year (or during the period from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and Jamaica. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the benefit of any private person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____ (the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning the teaching or research services for which exemption is claimed). The treaty exemption is available for compensation received during a period of two years beginning on that date.
