(Page 1) 2022 UC-Coro Program and Nomination Information

1. Program Information

Program Purpose

- To enhance leadership skills and foster relationships, networking, and collaboration across UC while building a pipeline for executive leadership positions

Program Benefits

- The opportunity to build a network of UC leaders and a potential pipeline for executive leadership positions at UC
- The ability to collaborate across organizational boundaries to solve problems and contribute to the betterment of UC
- Access to a diverse slate of executive leadership from across UC. Enhanced learning about UC's multiple locations, their strengths and impact
- Increased self and other awareness with a focus on inclusive leadership skills
- Improved leadership skills through personalized individual and group coaching

Program Components

- Eleven sessions, consisting of three, two-day intensive class sessions held at various UC locations (dependent on state, county, local, and UC health guidelines), plus five interactive virtual sessions
- Individual executive coaching
- Executive leadership interaction and interviews
- Opportunities to learn about UC's unique educational opportunities, research, and public service
- Peer consultancy opportunities throughout the program
- A group project through which cohorts develop recommendations for a UC leader-sponsored initiative of systemwide import
- A final group presentation for UC senior leaders that focuses on cohort recommendations

Program Expectations

- The program is rigorous and requires a firm commitment of approximately 80 hours of seminars and intersession assignments
- The group project requires an additional time commitment of at least 40 hours
- The program develops leadership skills, self, and other awareness, focusing on inter-UC location and cross-functional collaboration
- Active participation is integral to the learning process and experience.
- Program participants must attend all sessions. Conducting non-program work during sessions, absences, tardiness, violating cohort confidentiality, or other performance or behavior that is deemed detrimental to UC or Coro will result in dismissal from the program

Program Participants

The program accepts up to 60 diverse senior staff, faculty, and academic personnel from UC locations to participate in either a northern or a southern cohort

Program Costs

The UC-Coro Systemwide Leadership Collaborative Program cost remains $5,000 per participant. This fee covers all program materials, assessments, facilitation partner fees, and executive coaching

Travel Costs

- The participant's UC location is responsible for covering all travel related costs, including lodging, parking and any meals not included in the program
- Participants manage their own travel arrangements and submit travel reimbursements to their location/department using the established location Travel & Entertainment procedures

Northern California Cohort:

ANR, LBNL, UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Merced, UCOP, UC San Francisco, UC Santa Cruz

Southern California Cohort:

ANR, UC Irvine, UCLA, UC Riverside, UCOP, UC San Diego, UC Santa Barbara
