Multicampus Research Programs and Initiatives (MRPI)

PROGRAM SNAPSHOT
- 125 projects awarded
- $156M in total funding
- 6 funding cycles
- open to all fields of study
- 3+ UC institutions per project
- 14% overall funding rate

STRENGTHENING THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
MRPI funding helps maintain UC’s preeminence as the world’s leading public university system by positioning and attracting top-quality graduate students who constitute the next generation of innovators and thought-leaders.

Since 2009, all ten UC campuses, the three UC-managed national labs, the UC natural reserve system and agricultural research stations have participated in MRPI-funded research.

MRPI collaborations pursue breakthroughs at the frontiers and contributing to the University of California and to the state and nation by leveraging expertise and infrastructure across the UC system to address challenging problems.

FACT SHEET
updated 11.3.23
Each MRPI project is a research partnership among at least three UC campuses, and MRPI projects are highly interdisciplinary: 50% of MRPI projects include collaborators from three or more different disciplines.

Our portfolio can be categorized in five thematic areas, but many projects include partners across these categories, encouraging discovery at the interstices of established fields.

MRPI grantees published over 1,700 articles – in the past six years, 52% of these were in the top ten percent of the highest impact journals, signaling the scholarly impact of the research.

“[MRPI funding] is a wonderful way of getting different campuses to work together on an innovative scientific idea.”

-- Bruce McNaughton, UC Irvine Memory Prosthetics project

Enhancing UC Collaboration

Each MRPI project is a research partnership among at least three UC campuses, and 57% of MRPI projects include the participation of four or more UC campuses or UC-managed national labs. The result of this investment is a strong collaborative faculty network that enhances the impact and benefits of the research for California and the nation.
