“Be Smart About Safety” Safety & Loss Prevention Program – Effective July 1, 2008

Loss costs can be controlled with safety and loss prevention by:

- identifying and correcting the causes,
- developing and implementing safety awareness programs; and
- identifying and managing the indirect costs associated with injuries.

Office of the President, Risk Services (OPRS) has implemented the “Be Smart About Safety” (BSAS) loss prevention program. Locations develop safety and loss prevention plans which are submitted to OPRS for approval and funding. Programs at each location will be monitored by OPRS’s “Safety and Loss Prevention” personnel to ensure expected results are achieved.

The “Be Smart About Safety” Program
