UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
BLANKET SUMMER CONSORTIUM AGREEMENT

As allowed in the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 668.19, Student Assistance General Provisions and Part 690.8, Pell Grant Program.

This blanket consortium agreement is for the purpose of providing federal financial assistance to University of California students enrolled at host UC campuses for Summer Session. It covers enrollment for domestic courses and for travel courses.

This consortium agreement is effective beginning Summer Session 2006.

The home campus will be responsible for:

1. determining eligibility;
2. disbursing aid;
3. monitoring enrollment;
4. monitoring and resolving overawards;
5. administering the Return of Title IV Aid regulations; and
6. administering Satisfactory Academic Progress.

The host campus will be responsible for providing to the systemwide web sites:

1. cost of attendance information (unit fees, other program costs, etc.);
2. enrollment information (class name, unit value, registration status, cancellation and withdrawal dates, etc.) for the courses in which visiting UC students enroll; and
3. enrollment periods for the classes in which visiting UC students are enrolled.

Further, host campuses agree to not disburse aid to visiting UC students.
